

Sticky Situations!

Directions: Use the Ethical Decision-Making Process to determine the best solution your assigned scenario.

Scenario 1: Suppose you own an auto-body paint shop. To increase your profits, you charge top price and use the cheapest paint. One of your customers complains about the quality of the paint, but you do not care because she has already paid. What is one customer, right?

Scenario 2: I figured out how to make the time clock at work add 45 minutes per day to my time card, and no one knows it. Do you want me to show you how to do it with your time card?

Step 1: Identify dilemma.

What is the situation?

Step 2: Discover alternative actions.

What are all of my options on how to handle this situation?

Option 1- _____

Option 2- _____

Option 3- _____

Step 3: Decide who might be affected.

Who will each option affect?

Option 1 could affect... _____

Option 2 could affect... _____

Option 3 could affect... _____

Step 4: List the probable effects of the alternatives.

What will probably happen if I select this option?

If I choose option 1, _____

If I choose option 2, _____

If I choose option 3, _____

Step 5: Select the best alternative.

What is the best solution?

The best solution is option ____ because... _____

Name _____ Hr _____

Code of Ethics Picture Maker

Directions: After reading, make a picture about the reading. This could be a cartoon, a sketch, a scene, a flow chart, a stick figure, or a diagram. The drawing MUST include the main points of your assigned section. When finished, show your picture to others in your group. Ask them what they think it might mean. After everyone has had a chance to talk, tell them what you think.

